

WE WANT YOU!

IT ORGANISATION

joanneum racing graz is one of the most successful teams in the Formula Student combustion class worldwide. We offer great opportunities for you to not only learn about race cars but also experience working in a competitive environment with highly motivated students. Come be a part of this project and improve your skills!

Your task

While the race car itself is essential in motor sports, to be successful in Formula Student requires a lot more than that. By building and designing our Website you will enhance the social media presence and define a professional appearance for joanneum racing graz. You will also work on new solutions for different departments within the team. This is your opportunity to bring new ideas into the team and help us to become one of the most inspirational Formula Student teams.

Your skills

- Interest and enthusiasm for motor sports
- Willing to spend a part of your free time for the team
- Living the team spirit
- Basic knowledge in Computer Science
- Competences in web development

Your opportunities

- Get to know like-minded students from other studies
- Be part of a great student community
- Experience work in real-life situations
- Be prepared and one step ahead towards your future career
- Practical learning instead of boring lectures
